Blessing of the Inlet – May 3rd, 9 am – 2 pm

Head to the Inlet to celebrate the 29th anniversary of the Blessing of the Inlet on May 3RD. The Blessing of the Inlet was started to create a festival filled with worship, food, fun, and fellowship that is highlighted by a "Blessing" ceremony, celebrating the Lord's continued blessings within the Inlet Community. The Blessing of the Inlet generates funds for many missions, charities, and nonprofit organizations due to Belin's focus on the people and lives of Murrells Inlet and the surrounding South Strand. The festival provides a day of entertainment, with arts and crafts vendors, restaurants, and fun events for the entire family. The actual "Blessing" ceremony will start the event and will be held in front of the cross on the inlet. The festival is a free event with no admission or parking charge and is always held rain or shine. Everyone is invited to celebrate the glory of God and all His blessings.

Did You Know?

Although Georgia is known as "The Peach State," South Carolina produces more peaches than any other state east of the Mississippi. Nationally, it is second to California!

Have a fun-filled weekend,
