

Litchfield By The Sea

Golf Cart RULES & REGULATIONS

1. ALL golf carts on Litchfield By The Sea properties MUST have a barcode that is PERMANENTLY attached. Barcodes are available for a fee of $20.00 each. Owners are NOT allowed to hold up the barcode for the barcode reader.
2. Gas powered golf carts are NOT allowed. (Golf Cart Rentals are NOT allowed on Oceanside properties for anyone renting a unit.)
3. Golf carts may NOT be driven from 12:00 midnight until 6:00 am in the community and may only be driven during daylight hours outside the community, per South Carolina State Law. Crossing Hwy. 17 after daylight hours is prohibited.
4. A copy of golf cart liability insurance is required in order to obtain a bar code.
5. South Carolina law permits ONLY licensed drivers to operate golf carts. South Carolina law states you must have a permit and liability insurance for your golf cart. Please familiarize yourself with ALL SC golf cart laws.

16 years

Only licensed drivers over 16 years of age. That means that it is illegal for children or unlicensed drivers to drive a golf cart on a public road (which includes your neighborhood). It doesn't matter if you're seated next to your child; they still can't drive. Mar 4, 2017
